outcomes and
competences of students

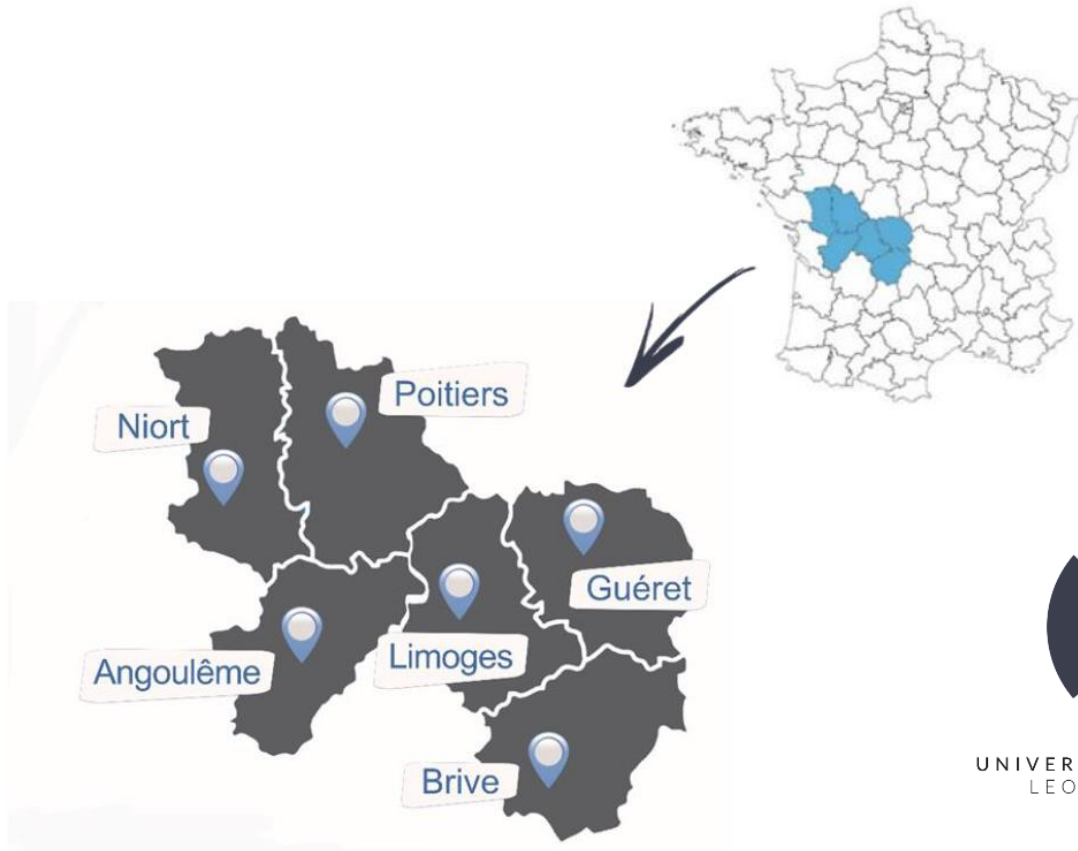

1) Finding consensus

2) Impact analysis

3) Systemic modus operandi
based on the Bologna Process
Principles

UNIVERSITÉ CONFÉDÉRALE
LEONARD DE VINCI

1 > Risk of developing a minimal use of open badges, thus avoiding structural change, or even worse, using them to go in the wrong direction;

2 > Taking an institutional stance, overlooking the ecosystems, the students and the added value and impact of badges;

3 > Not finding consensus by lack of co-design of badges ;

4 > Need to put recognition as a prerequisite of all action.

1 > Risk of developing a minimal use of open badges, thus avoiding structural change, or even worse, using them to go in the wrong direction

Open Badges to support business as usual....

2 > Taking an institutional stance, overlooking the ecosystems, the students and the added value and impact of badges

What/Who are badgs for ... ?

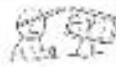

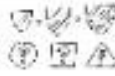

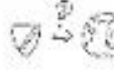

3 > Not finding consensus by lack of co-design of badges

Co-design: Setting the cat among the pigeons (letting the wolf into the shephold as we say in Franch...)
